

Unique three bedroom apartment to rent unfurnished in Eixample

Winston Churchill once said: We shape our dwellings, and afterwards our dwellings shape us. This sentence describes perfectly how important for human being where and how does he live. Chicroom Properties offers you this exceptional opportunity to shape and design this unique three bedroom apartment to rent unfurnished in Eixample any way you want to. This unfinished development will give you an extraordinary occasion to express who you are in any way you want in your new home. Accept this challenge with us and create the house of your dreams!

This amazing 120 m2 property was freshly renovated and kept in always elegant and classy snow-white walls. The always in style hardwood flooring makes this entire place very chic and polished. Here out will have an opportunity to design a spacious and illuminated living room. This place has an access two to balconies, where you can enjoy a wonderful view of the neighbourhood.

The open kitchen was designed in very simple but in same time modern and elegant style. White cabinets with silver finish lines make a perfect set with a build in electric oven and a microwave. This place also will give you an opportunity to prepare your meals on an induction stove, which will help you to save this space easy to clean.

This extraordinary apartment offers 3 rooms perfect for dormitories. One en-suite with privet bathroom and two more, that can become a perfect place to sleep for children or guest room and office. The second bathroom makes this bedroom an ideal place to stay for larger families.

Localized close to centre this development will guarantee you an easy and quick public transport. It is just a few minutes away from Plaza Universidad, where you will find a metro station, buses and taxi stop.
