

2-bedroom apartment with terrace for sale in Gothic Quarter Barcelona

Recently newly refurbished this 2-bedroom apartment with terrace for sale in Gothic Quarter Barcelona is available now. The work has been done with the finest finishings to produce a premium home in a charming neighbourhood.

The welcoming entrance hall sets the mood straight away and is a sort of amuse-bouche of the majestic interior design that will be discovered.

When entering the main living area, you will understand the unique character of the apartment thanks to the combination of the fantastic designer furniture and every bit of decorative items.

The dining room and the living room form one element for a comfortable home life. The latter is adorned with an exceptional wooden table with a glass river in the middle.

The open-space kitchen is well organised for making the cooking time the most pleasant and convenient possible. The brand-new high-end household appliances and the numerous storing cabinets makes this room very functional.

Next to it, there is a pre-terrace space that can be used either as a second living room or a working space.

From there you can access the 40-m² private terrace with a beautiful wooden decking. This is a luxury feature for a property in Barcelona and the enormous opportunity to make the most of the wonderful weather.

The two double bedrooms are situated on the other side of the apartment, which provides more privacy to their occupants. Both are of generous size and one of them has its private en-suite bathroom. It comes with a large shower, a sink and a WC and is covered with
